I wanted a program I could double click on to get all the tax codes in one go, rather than having to do it one at a time... Of course, I've always learned the quickest way is the hard way, LOL. It seems to me that the tax software has gone through a bit of a'reboot'. I think they should concentrate on the software as opposed to the teaching, because that's one aspect which has been going wrong for a long time, and there are lots of other alternatives out there now. Maybe no-one knows they're waiting for something to be updated. A one-stop shop for an average user, pay as you earn, self-assessment...and have the auto-pay feature is the best thing going. However, if the one stop shop could indicate the hours in which pay as you earn may be closed...wish they'd find a way
