Hello back (x is not usable, something or other) ohhhh Duale0201 WTF :D jhutchins, thanks, it did work :) I'm trying to connect my laptop to my desktop monitor and I'm being told that either there is not display device on the other end or that the display is too small dbugger: Cool. I've tried hooking it up directly to my svideo port and it still says the same thing Flexy0201: What if you hook it to the video port? is usb a problem at boot ? Flexy0201: What kind of video card? 2 of them I'm looking for something the System Settings uses to indicate "shutdown, suspend, poweroff"... I think it has several parts of a dialogue box. Can someone help me find this thing? wolfie1: You mean the actual USB device connecting it to the computer? Not what the port is connected to? If so, shouldn't affect the computer starting up. Nvidia GTX 660 Mo and On board Intel HD gfx Video card I've just not been able to see anything! yes i think i have usb,but everytime it tries to load it it keeps asking u for login and after i dont get to gnome <

Get ready to send a bird soaring or sink a cannonball on the high seas. Royal Skins is a fun and competitive game of billiards. Stay on top of the crowd and watch your points go up as the round ticks away. Compete against the clock or your best friend! This game is easy to pick up and play - just hit the table and start to get a feel for the physics of the game. Different sized balls and colors give you a number of variations. Royal Skins includes four different tables with smooth and realistic surfaces and official-level physics. You can play with one player, or compete online with a friend or anyone else that has a game on their platform. Features Play against the clock and your friend Play with one player or compete online Four beautifully crafted table options with realistic surfaces Four game modes: Time Trial, Two Person, Two Player & Single Player Start as a beginner and practice skills for online competition Choose from five realistic surfaces, 24 different balls Compete with up to four other players online and earn bragging rights Play alone or compete against the clock or a friend The classic billiards game with new challenges! In this SEGA compilation, 21 awesome SEGA games released all at once in one stunning package. This is a must have for every Sega collector! Just like the last package in the series, Sega Classics contains most of the best titles from the SEGA catalog, but with one key difference: this release is a compilation of all the games included in the Platinum collection released last November (three SEGA titles were new to the collection). Compared to that collection, this one is shorter by about 70 games (11 new titles). Still, this is an excellent collection of classic SEGA titles that any fan of the developer will not hesitate to add to their library. The package contains the following SEGA titles: Fantasy Zone II (PS1, 1992) Fantasy Zone II is an action adventure game developed by Sega Technical Institute and published by Sega in 1992 for the Sega Genesis in North America. It is the second installment of the SEGA Genesis and Game Gear Fantasy Zone series, and is the first video game in the series to be ported to the Game Gear, with gameplay identical to that of the Genesis/Mega Drive. Sea of Darkness (PS1, 1996) Sea of Darkness is a light gun shooter developed by Sega AM2 and published by Sega in 1996 for the Sega PlayStation.
