It is a TV show where a former theatre actress gets stalked by her crazy, stabby/shooting husband. She gets to track him down for a few episodes as she figures out that it's him that's doing all these murders and really totally and irrationally obsessed with her. I don't know what it's called because I've never watched it, but it's about the same plot. The movie I want to see came out two weeks ago, and the review I saw had only 20 seconds to watch it. But the review was extremely positive. If I saw it I would definitely go to see it with my husband. If you have a preference for horror movies in general
