Bexley dog owners warned to watch for Fox Sports coverage of Olympics WINNERS: Ed Purdie (left) and Lynne Taylor, both from Bromley, were last night pictured with their Border Collie, Alice, after making the short journey from Bromley to Millwall for the event. Bexley dog owners have been warned to keep an eye out for sports media coverage of the Olympic Games, which begin next week. Two-year-old Alice, a Border Collie, will not be one of those watching the sporting action unfold on TV. But she will be heart-pumping for her owner Lynne Taylor, of St John's Wood, following the co-ordinated efforts of competitors at a dog agility competition last night, which raised money for charities. Lynne, a radio producer at BBC Essex, said: "Alice is a bit of a ham so I took her along to make sure she keeps in with the crowd and she really did enjoy it. "A lot of people have dogs and didn't know she had been to a show before so this was a great opportunity to show Alice off and it went really well." The next demonstration sport for dogs will be synchronized swimming, which is also due to take place on August 12 at the Olympic Aquatics Stadium. Lynne said she thought it was "the perfect sport for our dog" as Alice loves to be near the water, but said it would be difficult to watch as the competitors need to lie face down in the water. She added: "I know she would be on the edge of her seat watching it in front of us. She'd be down there watching and if

FIFA is the most popular sports simulation series of all time. FIFA came to consoles in 2001 with the release of EA SPORTS FIFA 2001 on PlayStation 2 and Xbox. The series has made some of the biggest game-changers in the industry with its revolutionary dribbling system, improved on-pitch chemistry, 3-D commentary and more. There's been new innovations in FIFA the last decade too. Advanced Player Intelligence, Dynamic Tactics - with a brand new card and board system - and a revolutionary integration of 3D Stadiums were introduced with FIFA 17. We've continued to evolve the series with a new 3D animation system for players and stadia, a brand new ball physics engine, revised animations and player ergonomics, and increased responsiveness and intelligent use of AI teammates. New Attribute - an all new system that brings your players and their attributes to life through a more intuitive interface and in-game rating and progression. FIFA Ultimate Team - the franchise's most successful and accessible mode of play since its first launch, with a new dynasty mode, prizes, and packs. Over 30 Game Modes - the new Frostbite engine supports all the modern consoles and continues to evolve throughout release, offering for the first time in the series, online Seasons and Draft Mode. Real Player Motion Technology - a breakthrough in player movement and animation, and dynamic weather effects bring your world to life, every time. The World's No. 1 Sports Game - allowing you to pick from one of the largest lineups of real-world licensed players and teams from the best leagues on the planet including the English Premier League, La Liga, Serie A, Bundesliga, MLS, Ligue 1, Australian A-League, Mexico's SuperLiga and many others. FIFA Career Mode - a brand new campaign mode that allows you to create your own custom player from every one of the existing licensed squads. New Immersive Storylines - the English Premier League finally gets a long-awaited inclusion in the series, with new story arcs and world events that change the way the game is played. Unrivalled Atmosphere - bring the most realistic licensed stadiums and ambience into your gameplay with a new physics engine, dynamic sound and light systems, and incredible reactive crowd animations. One of the most anticipated titles of the year, FIFA 22 from EA SPORTS is a game-changer, offering the most bc9d6d6daa
